

Wanted . . . Two Front Teeth!

And, wanted . . . someone to sing about them!

The Wellesley Symphony Orchestra is holding auditions for someone to sing “All I Want for Christmas is my Two Front Teeth” at its Holiday Pops concert on Sunday afternoon, December 17, at MassBay Community College in Wellesley. The beloved song is by the late Donald Gardner, a longtime Wellesley resident and devotee of the Wellesley Symphony. His song is performed annually at this festive concert. You don’t have to be missing your two front teeth to be selected! As this concert is usually sold out, it provides an excellent opportunity for the child selected to be heard by many people. For information, appointment time, and address call 781-263-1933 or e-mail maxhobart@wellesleysymphony.org.

Application deadline November 17. Auditions November 30.

Music will be mailed to applicants.
